The Lotus Song

Couplet 1:
Only darkness for a long a time
My heart was'nt even mine
Running away from the memories
I tried everything to fullfill
what they say was ok

Prechorus :
I entered a new zone
At the end of the road
It seemed like a black hole
All I found was pure love
Melancoly turned out to be a great melody.

Refrain :
I will love, love, love
I will fail the loneliness
Trying to be above all the hate
I will embrace
All the tricks and the flaws
That it takes
to get free
I will love, love, love
I will fail the loneliness
Trying to be above all the hate
I will embrace
All the tricks and the flaws
That it takes
To be me.

Couplet2 :
Searching for an answer
when I thought everything was over
I looked in all the wrong places
when I saw the light shinning
And all that time,
Yes It was in me

Prechorus :
I entered a new zone
At the end of the road
It seemed like a black hole
All I found was pure love
Melancoly turned out to be a great melody.

Refrain :

I will love, love, love
I will fail the loneliness
Trying to be above all the hate
I will embrace
All the tricks and the flaws
That it takes
I will love, love, love
I will fail the loneliness
Trying to be above all the hate
I will embrace
All the tricks and the flaws
That it takes
To be me.

Pont :
You can't always blame yourself just forget
Love and respect and away the pain will melt

Refrain :
I will love, love, love
I will fail the loneliness
Trying to be above all the hate
I will embrace
All the tricks and the flaws
That it takes
to get free
I will love, love, love
I will fail the loneliness
Trying to be above all the hate
I will embrace
All the tricks and the flaws
That it takes
To be me.

I will Love, Yes I will Love, I will love .
